

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 5/17/2025 2:19:19 AM

First name: Ashlyn Hall

Last name: Hall

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Pe'sla is sacred among the Lakota people. It is a violation to defile land that they hold dear. The rest of us can learn from their reverence of the land. In general, we need to be incentivizing businesses to pivot away from manufacturing products that require mineral drilling in the first place. Caring for the land should necessarily not include defacing the land at the behest of private corporations.