Comments: I strongly object to Pete Lien & Songs drilling within the sacred site of Pe'Sla. The Lakota, Dakota, and Nakota communities has suffered more than enough oppression due to colonialism, and drilling within one of this community's sacred sites will only add to the extensive list of damages done to the Lakota, Nakota, and Dakota people. Not only does drilling at this site damage the land, environment, and water sources, it is inherently wrong to desecrate a community's sacred site for pure greed and monetary gain. I object to Pete Lien & Song's drilling at Pe'Sla as it will only cause further harm to the Lakota, Dakota, and Nakota communities and will harm many for nothing more than greed and monetary gain. Drilling at this site is inherently and morally wrong.
