

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 7/7/2025 8:34:06 PM

First name: Michael

Last name: McCord

Organization:

Title:

Comments: US Forest Service,

I strongly support the proposed Sugar Mountain Project. Ruffed grouse are a keystone indicator of forest health and declining rangewide, particularly in the southern Appalachians. The primary culprit is the increasing average forest age from a lack of sustainable harvest and prescribed fire. I am also in favor of the proposed intermediate treatments to thin stands and remove invasive species.