Comments: This old, antique tiny hut, now in ruins, needs to be removed and the sanctity of the area restored without a lot of noise and people around and mess left from this destroyed tiny hut , sharp screws, nails that may harm wildlife. Otherwise, get it gone, forever and leave the place in peace the way it was before it was built. Stay away from this area the the poor animals need to survive in. Must humans be every place, every inch on this planet? Can you not be respectful and SHARE it with what God made? Be protectors, not destroyers. They have their areas, we have ours.
