

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 7/11/2025 6:54:11 PM

First name: Bill

Last name: Holt

Organization:

Title:

Comments: The only responsible thing to do is nothing. Let the wilderness reclaim it. This quonset hut was built before the area was a designated wilderness. It has no place there. It serves no useful purpose and hasn't for years- since the public hike was suspended. Why in the world would you even think about rebuilding it when doing so would violate the requirements of the Wilderness Act?