Comments: To Whom It May Concern,

I think we should take this moment as an opportunity to reconsider priorities and move into the future with a less-is-more ethos, a leave-no-trace ethic. Rather than rebuild the Quonset hut in the Mount Timpanogos Wilderness, I think we should return that little spot of land to the wilderness there. People can use tents like everywhere else - we don't need a whole shelter - but more importantly, we don't need the undue stress on the land that building again will cause. It's just not worth it.
