Data Submitted (UTC 11): 7/25/2025 9:20:42 PM
First name: Mike
Last name: Purdy
Organization:
Title:
Comments: I am from South Dakota and own property in the Black Hills. The management of resources in the Hills are out of balance. Timber and mining interests are destroying what must be protected. More roads, harvesting smaller and smaller trees, exploration drilling, and the list goes on. Enough is enough. Start treating the Hills as the important, natural space that they are and stop planning their exploitation.