

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 8/7/2025 11:57:30 PM

First name: Dwight

Last name: Johnson

Organization:

Title:

Comments: The condition of the shelter has nothing to do with preserving Wilderness. It is folly to suggest that the condition of a shelter, in any way, diminishes the character of this, or any other, designated Wilderness.

True Wilderness, by its very definition, ought have no man made structure within its boundary.

The proper Forest Plan for this Wilderness should be to leave alone the area designated as Wilderness, with no interference by humans.