

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 8/15/2025 5:55:32 PM

First name: Katherine

Last name: Newman

Organization:

Title:

Comments: There are so many negatives to not burying the lines near Eagle Vail that it appears that the energy company and the forest service is totally negligent in allowing above ground lines. Knowing the fire danger of these lines, and the destroying of a logical staging area to fight fires, this could and should leave the energy company open to lawsuits. I know it is difficult to sue the government, but incases of gross negligence maybe it is possible.