Data Submitted (UTC 11): 10/26/2025 6:46:50 AM
First name: Philip
Last name: Ratcliff
Organization:
Title:
Comments: The Trump administration informed the Agriculture Department, which oversees the Forest Service, to significantly increase logging in national forests. I suspect that the commercial thinning planned for this project, is part of the Trump directive to jack up logging on public lands. I think that "no significant impact" findings will occur much more often for logging projects.