

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/12/2026 3:28:17 AM

First name: Steve

Last name: Hansen

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I want to suggest moving carefully in the proposed thinning project for the Mount Baker-Snoqualmie National Forest. While the objectives of the project can be achieved through responsible use of active management techniques like Variable Density Thinning (VDT), it's crucial that a full, detailed, and place-based analysis of the environmental impacts is considered before moving forward with any proposed management activities.