Comments: Ten Sleep is an important cultural destination and climbing mecca for those in the know. We sing its praises around the country. Thank you for this updated policy to ensure certain bolters and route setters will not be able to manufacture holds or misuse the land for their personal economic projects. As a Texan and current resident of Colorado, I cherish how wild Wyoming is. That land should be as natural as possible and not open to abuse from motivated liars. As best as one can at least. All of us wish this could have been settled amicably and I appreciated the Octagon being hidden away. Yet this kind of abuse spoils the fun for everyone. Greatly appreciate the hours and community input from everyone.
