

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 2/28/2026 11:25:44 PM

First name: Angela

Last name: Anderson

Organization:

Title:

Comments: We residents of SD do not want more uranium mining that will potentially damage an aquifer forever by using the water in the drilling process. How can this be that there is so little regulation on mining? We are suppose to follow older rules and guidelines. But environmental knowledge and the risk/benefit of mining needs re calculating . These laws and rules are outdated and protect the companies far more than the environment and citizens.