

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/14/2026 2:36:26 AM

First name: Nick

Last name: Picklesimer

Organization:

Title:

Comments: This is a horrible idea. The raft companies will buy all the permits and all of the locals who want to enjoy the beauty of the place they live will not have access. The forest service should not have this much power and control over land that we pay taxes for. If you are really worried about the traffic on the river, then regulate the commercial permits that are issued.