

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/20/2026 3:54:34 AM

First name: Susan

Last name: Strauss

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I am strongly opposed to logging the Malheur NF. Oregon continues to be in a drought and our trees look very sick. The last thing we need is industrial logging in an area that is already struggling. The effects of climate change are obvious in Oregon forests__especially forest in the dry and desert outback lands. Such an attack on our already weak forests cause hardship on wildlife as well.