

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 3/31/2026 7:15:15 PM

First name: Britton

Last name: Johnston

Organization:

Title:

Comments: The Tongass National Forest is an important resource for mitigating global climate heating. In view of this, timber extraction there should be kept to a minimum. Climate change should be a consideration regarding the economic health of stakeholder communities. Environmental Impact Statements must include the impact of logging on global climate systems.