Data Submitted (UTC 11): 4/22/2026 5:18:34 PM
First name: Valerie
Last name: Mowell
Organization:
Title:
Comments: The mining options proposed threaten a loss of forestry, wildlife habitats, and natural landscaping for millions to enjoy not to mention the obvious decline of minerals that make that area what it is and the potential devastating impacts to the water supply. On this Earth Day, I urge this proposal to be denied. This is one of the few if not the only area of the US left that is still in its completely natural and undisturbed state and we should protect that at all costs.