

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 4/22/2026 5:54:52 PM

First name: Lisa

Last name: Maragon

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I am opposed to going about preventing forest fires in the Chalk Buttes by allowing commercial timber harvesting. Prescribed fire is the correct way to prevent future forest fires . This thins out the undergrowth that really takes a fire to becoming out of control. The Forests in this area are not that dense. I question why prescribed fire would even be necessary. Commercial timber harvesting is going to drastically increase the threat of erosion because of the steepness of the area's terrain.