

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 4/26/2026 4:07:52 PM

First name: anthony

Last name: appelhans

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Logging here won't meaningfully reduce wildfire risk-and it can increase it by disturbing soils and opening the canopy to sun and wind. Fire is driven by weather, and a warming climate is making those conditions worse. Losing forests only adds to that problem. It is clear that the underlying objective of this project is timber extraction in an area that is highly vulnerable to disturbance. It's proximity to Yellowstone National Park heightens the importance of this on a larger landscape scale.