

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 4/29/2026 7:23:22 AM

First name: Jocelyn

Last name: Andrea

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Hello,

This proposition to ONCE AGAIN open the Tongass to logging should be classified as a crime against nature and against future generations. This area is the home of thousands, if not millions of animals and a vibrant ecosystem. There is also significant research of the North American Great Ape on Prince of Wales Island. Should this proposal be pushed through, I hope bigfoot destroys all of ypur equipment and sabotages any attempt creepy corporations make to destroy this sacred natural habitat.