

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 5/13/2026 2:56:45 AM

First name: Barry

Last name: Smith

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I oppose the proposal on these grounds

The Chalk Buttes are an "island of habitat" for mule deer, elk, pronghorn, mountain lions, and birds of prey. Argue that development will destroy habitat connectivity. A large-scale project changes the "remote wild landscape" that characterizes the community , I have concerns about increased traffic on local, unpaved county roads, which are not designed for heavy industrial equipment.