

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 8/5/2026 8:05:29 AM

First name: Laura

Last name: Pakaln

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I visited Lolo National Forest last fall and hope to return again. Hiking the Blossom Lake trail was fantastic and awe inspiring!

Selling portions of the Lolo National Forest removes land from the National Forest system, permanently reducing the public estate that all Americans have a right to access and enjoy.

If this goes through, if this proposal goes through we may lose public accessibility to a part of this beautiful park. Once it's gone, we may never get it back.