

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 8/12/2026 12:17:16 AM

First name: Aaron

Last name: Franks

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Fuel should be removed from the forests as much as is reasonably possible. This means removing dead brush and trees that are drying out and simply being fuel for fires without helping the ecosystem beyond simply rotting. I expect that this can best be done with logging companies and firewood permits, but there may be other equally good ideas to remove this.