

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 8/14/2026 10:09:24 PM

First name: Leslie

Last name: Parks

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Please ensure active management also supports clean water and quality wildlife habitat. Thinning, prescribed burns and other restoration efforts can both support the local economy, increase wildfire resilience and improve wildlife habitat and overall ecosystem health. Too many roads in the wrong place will deter wildlife from valuable habitat. Roadless areas are critical to both the backcountry experience for people as well as the ability for wildlife to thrive. Please retain core roadless protections, while allowing balanced habitat restoration