

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 8/19/2026 5:45:37 PM

First name: Nicole

Last name: Loyet

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I think owning a peace of urban land is essential to keep. Regardless of the plans. This land is worth millions and does not need to become apartments and businesses. We should keep it for parks and recreation uses not sell it. Once it's gone it's gone. Green space is going to be needed the more we grow and if they want to consolidate forest services they do not need to just sell it.