

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 8/22/2026 12:17:21 AM

First name: Howard

Last name: Morkert

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Recently spent some time in this proposed logging/thinning area and the amount of downed timber from the windstorms in December and March is unbelievable. I would hope this project proceeds with no challenges, the downed timber needs to be harvested before it rots. It is currently difficult for deer and elk to navigate the downed timber and the logging will provide more forage those animals.

I am fully in favor of this project!