

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 8/24/2026 12:07:32 PM

First name: Becky

Last name: Cyganiewicz

Organization:

Title:

Comments: There are so few old growth forests left in the northeast, particularly in New Hampshire. They are vanishing just like in so many other parts of the country. The areas in Waterville need to remain protected or all the old trees, precious habitat and wildlife will suffer for nothing. There is no need to exp and the ski resort other than greed. This is completely unnecessary.