

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 9/18/2026 9:00:29 PM

First name: Juan

Last name: Montes

Organization:

Title:

Comments: The legacy of uranium mining has been disastrous and dangerous for people and communities. It is irresponsible for the Forest Service to even consider uranium mining on public lands. History has shown that radioactive spills to the Puerco River killed people and livestock. Communities have to be protected from arbitrary decision-making by federal agencies designed to protect our environment and people. No uranium mining is safe anywhere.