

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 9/20/2026 3:12:46 PM

First name: Justin

Last name: Friedman

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Our distrust of federal government functioning and decision making overall has significantly declined particularly in environmental matters. I support forest thinning and more careful and limited selection of trees to be cut. I would recommend the use of cut trees for lumber and wood materials such as oriented strand board. The slash which can't be used should be chipped and treated to compost so that it does not pose a future risk. DO NOT BURN IT.