

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 9/22/2026 2:18:35 PM

First name: Georgie

Last name: Goich

Organization:

Title:

Comments: This plan revision will only serve to limit the economic capacity for the coastal range, but removing its biggest tourist attraction aside from the costs itself, the forests. These beautiful old growth forests that draw hundreds of thousands of visitors every year, will be removed for the same monoculture plantations that have resulted in Oregon constantly catching on fire every summer. This plan will only serve to ruin the economic viability for the coastal range for a sector that is no longer as important as it once was.