

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 9/23/2026 6:04:39 PM

First name: Logan

Last name: Mante

Organization:

Title:

Comments: The Land Management Plan should not be revised. Our untouched nature is our greatest resource. Increasing forest harvest destroys our fragile ecosystems. The roadless rule was created to stop unprofitable harvest practices that serve only to funnel our resources to the rich. There is no economic or ecological incentive, for the common person and voter, to revise the Land Management Plan.