Comments: I want to voice my opposition to the proposed expansion project for the ski resort. The town of Brianhead is unique because it is loved and enjoyed by people from all walks of life. The balance it has between the ski resort and other recreational activities is the key to Brianhead's appeal. Expanding the resort would unfairly impose restrictions on other activities and uses for the land, excluding and eliminating a large demographic of people who visit for activities other than skiing. Leave it as is!
