

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 2/15/2020 6:16:33 PM

First name: RENNIE

Last name: PELKIE

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I object to any road closures in the northern area of the Colville National Forest.

There are ecological studies that in my opinion support the facts that keeping roads open is good for the environment and helps reduce carbon causing effects of climate change.

Closing roads also hurts local economies, first responders and the local lumber businesses.

For all the reasons you are opening roads to the south with the tribe - which I applaud - keep the roads open to the north. No Quid Pro Quo.