

I do not support the Stibnite Gold Project. The product, Antimony will be sold to an American company (Ambri), but outsourced to other countries after being processed. Ask Perpetua where the final product is going!!!!!! If it's not going to be used in America, why is Idaho mining? A valuable resource given away to other countries of the world.

Denise Steneck