

The Perpetua Resources' Stibnite Gold Project is an endeavor that needs supported.

It is the perfect opportunity to restore an ecosystem left in ruins from a prior mining project. When I visit with people about the mining, the biggest concern seems to be the environment.

Today, there is no domestic source of this mineral. Most of it comes from China or Russia, which makes our country

As the U.S. Forest Service and other state and federal agencies review the 2021 Modified Mine Plan and determine the course of action, I encourage you to consider the positive benefits Perpetua Resources will have on Idaho, especially now that the company has reduced its environmental footprint and made further improvements to water quality. This truly is a win-win opportunity for Idahoans and the environment. After years of careful scrutiny by regulators and the community, it is time for us to make these benefits a reality.
