Comments: Hello! While I am sad like most to see this shelter go, I agree that it is the best for the safety of the hikers and people coming to enjoy the beautiful mountains to decommission the barn. Since the site became so iconic, it would be nice to pay homage to the previous shelter. One idea I had would be to build the proposed covered picnic area to have a "barn look" maybe something like a red roof with a traditional barn pitch and white accents with open sides. It would also be nice to have a sign to tell the history of the old shelter with some pictures. Thanks!
